THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF SOCIAL JUSTICE AND EMPOWERMENT (SHRI SATYABRATA MOOKHERJEE): (a) to (d) The Government has taken a number of measures to check begging, including beggary by children, as also for the rehabilitation of beggars (including child beggars). Some of these measures are enactment of legislations by State Governments and Union territory Administrations, provisions of punishment for the persons employing or using a child for begging.The Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Act, 2000 addresses the needs of all children in need of care, protection, rehabilitation and reintegration.

Besides, the Ministry of Social Justice & Empowerment is implementing, since 1992-93, a Central Sector scheme called, 'An Integrated Programme for Street Children. The objective of this programme is to prevent destitution of children and facilitate their withdrawal from a life on the streets and their social reintegration. The programme provides for shelter, nutrition, health care, education and recreation faciliities to street children and seeks to protect them against abuse and exploitation including forced beggary. Under this scheme, the Ministry is also providing financial assistance to CHILDLINE Service, which is a 24 hour free phone service for children in distress. It can be accessed by a child in difficulty or an adult on his behalf by dialing 1098. The basic objective of this service is to respond to children in emergency situation and to refer them to relevant governmental and non-governmental organisation, which facilitate the rehabilitation of children in especially difficult circumstances including child beggars.
